

Invitation

On the 11th of November the conference:
“Arctic Bioeconomy – Focus on West-Nordic Countries” will take place in Reykjavik at the Nordic House, Sturlugötu 5, between 13:00-17:00.

Program:

- 13:00 – 13:40 Europe route to the Bioeconomy, challenges and perspectives for the Nordic Union, Dr.dr. Christian Patermann, key note speaker
- 13:40 – 14:00 Main results of Arctic Bioeconomy – lessons learned and the way forward, Sigrún Elsa Smáradóttir, Research group leader, Matís
- 14:00– 14:15 Trends in the Blue Bioeconomy: A Faroese Case Study, Dr. Unn Laxá, Research Project Manager
- 14:15 – 14:30 Business opportunities and rural development in the Greenlandic Bioeconomy, Inunnguaq Hegelund, chef at Hotel Arctic in Greenland
- 14:30 – 14:50 Access to plant varieties in the Arctic agriculture, Dr. Svein Ø. Solberg, Senior Scientist, Nordic Genetic Resource Center
- 14:50 – 15:20 Coffee break
- 15:20 – 15:40 Bioeconomy in the Nordic countries, strategy, opportunities and needs, Dr. Lene Lange, professor, Department of Biotechnology and Chemistry, Aalborg University, Denmark
- 15:40 – 16:00 European Bioeconomy - opportunities and challenges, Dr. Hörður G. Kristinnsson, Director of Research, Matís
- 16:00 – 17:00 Panel discussion

norden